

A GUIDE FOR DONORS

Donating a Horse

If your donated horse is estimated to be over $5,000, and you plan to claim a deduction, the IRS requires a formal appraisal. Here's how it works.

ALL APPRAISALS REMOTE · NATIONWIDE

BY VALUE

$0	$500	$5,000
Up to $500 No form. Keep a record of value.	$500 to $5,000 Form 8283, Section A. Appraisal optional.	Over $5,000 Qualified appraisal required. Form 8283, Section B.

The appraisal can be done up to 60 days before or after your donation. Donated more than 60 days ago?
Contact us. We can still help.

Filing soon? Please schedule ahead to avoid rush processing fees.

FORM 8283 SIGNATURES

You

Horse details, cost, value

Your appraiser

Declaration and report

The charity

Date received

The charity must be a qualified 501(c)(3). If it sells the horse within three years, it files Form 8282 and sends you a copy.

WHAT TO SEND

Registration papers

Photos, all sides

Video under saddle

Show and breeding records

Charity name and tax ID

Donation date

THE FEE

$625*per horse, flat feeLindsey Stier Johnson

Equine Appraiser · Stier Horse Appraisal

503-706-6762 · info@equinedonations.com · equinedonations.com

Please book by November to avoid rush processing fees.

Always review your information with your CPA or tax advisor before filing.